Spiritual Warfare & Kingdom Advancement

Jesus came in order to overcome the works of the evil one. He set people free from the power and influence of unclean spirits, and triumphed over them on the cross.

Today there is still a desire for freedom from the powers of darkness, and people are looking for answers anywhere they can.

Jesus intends his church to be an agent of liberation, and this Dunamis event helps equip us to be part of this ministry. Learning from Jesus' own example, we will look at how Christians today can cooperate with the Holy Spirit in setting people free, resisting the works of Satan and advancing the Kingdom of God.

Through a combination of Biblical teaching, practical experience and thoughtful reflection, we look forward to seeing people set free, and to seeing people called and anointed by God to be part of His spiritual liberating work.

"When I first attended Dunamis I was in a spiritual desert. The teaching, prayer, worship and practical application has transformed my personal spiritual walk. My faith is much deeper and stronger; even when things are tough I remain rooted in a greater understanding and awareness of God's closeness and love for me."
