Join us as part of a series of regular City-wide Prayer Breakfasts, organised by Together4Bristol, with an opportunity to pray for one another and the City. Please pass on this invite to other church leaders, to you contacts and networks!

Mayor Marvin Rees will join us on this occasion to challenge the churches (see attached letter), as he has helpfully done a couple of times in the past, to increase unity and reconciliation among the churches and to serve the city even more than we already do.

This has the full encouragement and support of the eight senior Church Leaders listed below, some of whom intend to join us on this occasion. Find out more about Together4Bristol.
