

COMMUNICATIONS MANAGER

Join Echoes International and help us deliver our vision as we launch the new charity in Jan 2018. The role can be based in our Glasgow or Bath offices.

We are looking to appoint the successful candidate to the role of Communications Manager

The individual will be responsible for leading a communications team and looking to shape/deliver key messages for Echoes International across multiple channels both traditional & digital. In addition to developing the magazine portfolio and building on it's heritage the successful candidate will be responsible for building up and maximising our digital communications approach. Taking the agreed 3 year strategy and helping to ensure it is fully delivered.

The role requires energy and communications experience particularly using a multi-channel approach. Suitable qualifications and leadership experience would also be a requirement for the role.

Salary - £32000.

CLOSING DATE FOR APPLICATION - FRIDAY 22 SEPT 2017

For an application form, please contact Jim Armstrong on M: 07585669891.

This role carries a Christian Occupational Requirement pursuant to Sch g(1) and (3) Equality Act 2010