

SOCIAL MEDIA CO-ORDINATOR

Come over and help us as part of a new communications team as we develop our digital channels for Echoes International.

The successful candidate will be responsible for the development of our Social Media approach for the new charity in accordance with our 3 year strategy. The role will be based in either the Glasgow or Bath offices of Echoes International.

We are looking to appoint a full time member of staff to the role of Social Media Co-ordinator.

He/She will be responsible for development and management of the strategic approach to social media for Echoes International and all related activities. The successful candidate will focus on improving engagement, enhancing Echoes International visibility & message across chosen segments & looking to make sure information is communicated safely and effectively. The role will require experience in the medium of social media and a track record of success .

Salary £22000.