

Christian Action Bristol's website is launched

Christian Action Bristol (CAB) has launched a new website:

www.christianactionbristol.org.uk

CAB has developed over the last couple of years, to encourage Christians to get involved in social action. The vision is to 'Mobilise the human and financial capital that exists within the Christian community in Bristol to serve and bless the city through action'.

There are currently 14 areas of social action, linked to Christian Action Bristol, under the chairmanship of Andrew Street: Homelessness and housing / accommodation, Addiction support and recovery, Food poverty, Prison ministry and supporting ex-offenders, Vulnerable / working women, Refugees, Young people, Debt advice and support, Environment and creation care, Social investment, Police / street pastors, Disability, Community, and Politics (local and national).

Christian Action Bristol is also the Politics and Social Action sphere of Together4Bristol, a growing "unity for mission movement" of churches, prayer groups and networks across the whole, or 'spheres', of life. This movement helps the Christian community to be good news for the Bristol region.

To find out more about how to get involved, please see the new website, or contact CAB:
