

Popular Resistance in Palestine: A History of Hope and Empowerment

A presentation by

Mazin Qumsiyeh

Political Activist and Director of the Palestine Museum of Natural History, Bethlehem

Professor Qumsiyeh was born and raised in Beit Sahour and has been for all his life in the forefront of political activism, non-violent direct action and the struggle to end the Occupation and establish equal human rights for all Palestinians.

He is the author of several books and hundreds of articles on the subject.

Saturday 27 July at 7.00pm at the

Palestinian Museum & Cultural Centre

27 Broad Street, Bristol BS1 2HG

ADMISSION FREE. REQUESTED DONATION OF £10 OR WHAT YOU CAN AFFORD TO HELP COVER COSTS

In order to assist with numbers if possible please book your free place on Eventbrite – go to Eventbrite.com and search for ‘Mazin Qumsiyeh’ or simply turn up on the day!

