

Christmas Tours at Charles Wesley's House

General Event Information

4 Charles Street was home to the writer of one of the most popular, well-known Christmas carols of all time; Hark! The herald angels sing. It's 1769 and Charles Wesley and his family are getting ready for Christmas. Come on a festive tour of his home. Enjoy carols, beautiful floral displays and find out how Christmas was celebrated in the eighteenth century. Finish with a mince pie and a sing-along in the family music room.
