

The Eye of the Needle

Biblical Clues to a New Economy

Speakers:

Professor Ulrich Duchrow

of Kairos Europa and professor of Systematic Theology at the University of Heidelberg

Dr Molly Scott Cato

Director of the Cardiff Institute for Co-operative Studies and author of “Green Economics”

Conference Facilitator:

Simon Barrow

Co-director of Ekklesia

A day conference to explore the distinctive contribution which the Christian faith can make to the shaping of a new, post financial crisis, economic order.

This conference is for anyone who has an interest in the links between faith and economics, including academics, local church leaders, those involved in Christian social enterprises/co-operatives, trade unions, economic justice activists etc.

Venue: The Vassall Centre, Gill Avenue, Bristol BS16 2QQ

Date: Saturday 24th March 10.00am—4.00pm

Cost: £30 (lunch included)

To book places please contact:

ISR, 162 Pennywell Road, Bristol BS5 0TX

eyeoftheneedle@ccisr.org.uk 0117 955 7430

Conference organisers:

DIOCESE OF TRURO